Please give a brief description of your legal problem:

WAIVER & CONSENT

I certify that I am not currently represented by an attorney with regard to the matter I am here for today, or if I am represented, I am here for a second opinion. I understand that all matters discussed with the attorney are subject to confidentiality under the attorney-client privilege. The attorney may not discuss the matters with third parties without my consent except as needed to carry out representation of me. The law also requires the attorney to disclose my confidential information if: ordered by the court, the Texas Disciplinary Rules, other law, to defend against civil or criminal charge, to prevent the client from committing fraud or criminal act, or to rectify fraud or criminal acts.

I further certify that I will be truthful with the attorney with regard to potential conflicts of interest and all other matters. I realize it is in my best interest to be honest with the attorney so that I get the best legal advice. The fee for today's visit is $ _____
