Spousal Maintenance/Alimony

Spousal maintenance is “presumed” to not be payable in Texas. However it can be ordered for those who are victims of family violence within 2 years (or during the divorce), those unable to support themselves due to disability, those married for more than 10 years who cannot support themselves, and those who have a disabled child.

Husband should pay $ _____/mo maintenance to wife for ___ years due to:

- family violence by husband    wife’s disability    need + 10 yr marriage    disability of child

Wife should pay $ _____/mo maintenance to husband for ___ years due to:

- family violence by wife    husband’s disability    need + 10 yr marriage    disability of child

We also need a copy of your:

- real estate note(s) & deed(s) for each real property owned
- car insurance (card is fine if VIN’s shown)
- retirement account statement (if dividing retirement)
- copy of your drivers license/state ID and social security card
- NADA/KBB vehicle valuation for any vehicle in which value is disputed/at issue
- if we have a hearing: copies of all your social media (Facebook, Twitter, etc.)
- if we have a hearing: recent photo of you and your spouse looking best, worst, and average
